

Try To Spot Them All!

Chestnut Oak

Eastern Hemlock

Big Bluestem

Red Maple

Meadowsweet

Indiangrass

Sassafras

Invasive Species
Butterfly
Bush

Red-backed Salamander

Gray
Birch

Wild
Bleeding Heart

Black Rat Snake

Sweet
Birch

Late Eupatorium

Turkey
Vulture

Terrestrial Habitats of the Lehigh Gap Nature Center

American Crow

Indigo
Bunting

Tree Swallow

Song Sparrow

Eastern Bluebird

Eastern
Chipmunk

Black-capped Chickadee

Cabbage
White

Prairie Warbler

Monarch

Lehigh Gap Nature Center is home to several unique terrestrial (land) habitats, including forest, scrub, and grassland. Each of these habitats is home to a unique array of plants and animals.

8844 Paint Mill Rd., Slatington, PA 18080

www.lgnc.org | mail@lgnc.org | 610-760-8889

Photos by Corey Husic, Ali Iyob, Dan Kunkle, and Dustin Welch